January DCMC Report

WOW – I am so excited for Suffolk County Panel 73 Trusted Servants. Why is it P73 – First International Convention was in 1950. At the first International convention the idea of a general service conference was adopted on a trial basis. The first GSC was held in 1951, so when we do a little bit of math, we can figure out that 2023 will have the 73rd GSC, making delegates and trusted servants starting this year considered "Panel 73" trusted servants.

We have a great team of officers, committee chairs, DCMS's & GSR's. These next couple of months will be the busiest. Below I have some links that I found to be helpful in my rotation as GSR and DCM. I can speak for myself – I was overwhelmed with all the information as a new GSR as well as a DCM. I can say the same for my role as your Suffolk County Chair. One of the common themes in the area inventory was people stated that didn't know what to do or where to go so I have a wealth of information to provide you as tools. I am not going to go through all of them, however I will say to REGISTER if you haven't done so already. Have patience with registrars to update your information. Check your promotions folder or spam folder for our emails (because that's where they end up sometimes).

So far, I have been busy-

- I was part of a meeting with our Delegate JoAnn, incoming and outgoing DCMC's
- I attended the SENY Committee meeting (What is SENY) with our new officers, area chairpersons and DCMS
- I have been busy as Publicity Chair for both the Unity Breakfast, SENY Convention – went to my first Assemblea to drop off flyers
- Was part of the Bank Transition from old officers to new officers.

I was told when you register – make sure to say that you want a kit in the mail. Registration link is attached.

AREA CALENDAR – Look at the Area Assembly Dates and put them on your calendar.
I will be going in person and will be picking up THE LINK for SUFFOLK COUNTY. They will be available in person in February. THE LINK is our areas newsletter. It's a great read and they are looking for people to write articles.
